

Guided Tour Information

Would you like to visit the Rega helicopter base in Bern with a group? Below you can find the most important information about our guided tours in Belp.

- Programme:
- Presentation about Rega
 - Viewing of the base with the helicopter hangar
 - Viewing of the rescue helicopter (if not in operation)
 - Screening of the Rega film
- Duration: Approx. 1 1/2 hours
- Number of participants: Minimum 12, maximum 25 persons
- Minimum age: 10 years. School classes and groups of young people must be accompanied by at least two adults.
- Dates/Times: Monday to Friday, times by prior arrangement
- Booking: At least 6 – 8 weeks before the desired date.
Rega Centre Zurich-Airport, Tel. +41 44 654 32 06 (Tuesday – Thursday, 10.00am – 12.00 noon & 2.00 – 5.00pm). E-mail: visits@rega.ch
- How to get here: Bus no. 160 from Belp railway station in the direction of Bern-Belp Airport to the „Giessenbad“ stop. Car & bus parking: a limited number of parking spaces are available. You can find a map and directions on how to get here at: access.rega.ch.
- Cost: Guided tours are free of charge. However, if you cancel your tour less than one week before the booked date, an administration fee of CHF 170.00 plus VAT will be charged.
- Donations: Would you like to support our work? Whether big or small – we are grateful for every single donation. Many thanks!
- Special remarks: The directions of the tour guides must be followed at all times.
- In the event of a mission or unforeseen incident, tours can be delayed, postponed, discontinued or cancelled at short notice.
- Animals are not permitted at the Rega bases.
- Unfortunately we are not able to provide any food or refreshments.